SUPERVISOR: Antonio Paez NUMBER OF PAGES: ix, 5

Lay Abstract

The lay abstract must be 150 words or less.

It must explain the key goals and contributions of the thesis in lay terms that are accessible to the general public.

Abstract

This is the abstract.

I can write a really long abstract.

Acknowledgements

I want to thank a few people.

This includes my friends.

Declaration of Authorship

I, You R. Name, declare that this thesis titled, My Graduate Thesis and the work presented in it are my own. I confirm that:

I did most of the research.

Also the writting.

Sometimes I cried.

But mostly I had fun.

Conclusion

If we don't want Conclusion to have a chapter number next to it, we can add the {-} attribute.

More info

And here's some other random info: the first paragraph after a chapter title or section head shouldn't be indented, because indents are to tell the reader that you're starting a new paragraph. Since that's obvious after a chapter or section title, proper typesetting doesn't add an indent there.
